

LESSONS OF LOVE - PART 2

I know that what I'm about to say is not popular and most times not even believed. But it is a truth I highly believe in and one that every Master who has walked this Earth has also espoused. And it is this: Each one of us is responsible for the condition of our world. It's easier to blame governments, terrorists, lack of gun control, evil people, etc., for the negativity that takes place on a daily basis. So, as we're sitting in our chair watching the Nightly News wondering what this world is coming to, we are clueless to think that we play a very important part in what is going on in our world. But Gandhi said it simply: "If you want to change the world, you must change yourself."

Read More . . .

Candy Chang: Before I die I want to ... a TED Talk video

In her New Orleans neighborhood, artist and TED Fellow Candy Chang turned an abandoned house into a giant chalkboard asking a fill-in-the-blank question: "Before I die I want to ____." Her neighbors' answers - surprising, poignant, funny - became an unexpected mirror for the community.

GO HERE TO WATCH NOW.

Dr. Connie Announces Two New Mentorship Programs: The Great Adventure of Awakening™

The mentorship programs entail increasing your awareness of who you are on deeper levels that you may not have explored yet and involves learning techniques and new ways of thinking to help you become a happier and more fulfilled person. As a team, we look at challenges and obstacles that may hinder you from succeeding in all areas of your life and focus on helping you to become more of who you want to be . . .

More info . . .

STAY CONNECTED:

